PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

LECO Program

PURPOSE OF PROGRAM

The Sheriff's Department's Law Enforcement Correctional Officer (LECO) Program provides employees serving as Correctional Officers, who may not otherwise meet certain Patrol Deputy eligibility requirements, a pathway to transition into a Patrol Deputy position. The LECO Program gives participants valuable experience as a Correctional Officer as well as the opportunity to participate in a defined training curriculum to prepare the employee for successfully obtaining certification as a Class-1 Law Enforcement Officer through the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy.

QUALIFICATIONS

To be eligible to apply to the LECO Program through the Sheriff's Department's pre-employment process, individuals must, at a minimum, possess an Associate's Degree or have at least two (2) years of prior military service. Additionally, the new hire LECO applicant must satisfactorily meet all other standard pre-employment screening requirements for the position of Patrol Deputy and Correctional Officer.

PROGRAM

Individuals selected to participate in the LECO Program will, upon hire, be required to serve as a Correctional Officer for a period of two and a half (2-1/2) years. At the completion of two (2) years of service as a Correctional Officer with the Sheriff's Department, the employee will enter a defined training curriculum designed to specifically prepare the Correctional Officer to attend the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy and to successfully obtain certification as a Class-1 law enforcement officer. While participating in this six-month preparatory training, the employee will continue to work as a Correctional Officer. After the satisfactory completion of the defined training curriculum, the employee will be enrolled at the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy to pursue Class-1 law enforcement officer certification. Upon successful graduation from the Academy, the employee will return in the Patrol Deputy position.

Disciplinary action or otherwise poor work performance as a Correctional Officer may prohibit the employee from further participation in the LECO Program.
